

How To Include Derivatives (Spouse, Children, Parents and Siblings) In U Visa/ U Nonimmigrant Application

1) If you are the principal U Visa/ U Nonimmigrant applicant and you are under 21 years of age:

- You may petition on behalf of your spouse, children, parents and unmarried siblings under age 18

2) If you are the principal U Visa/ U Nonimmigrant applicant and you are over 21 years of age:

- You may petition on behalf of your spouse and children

3) To petition for a qualified family member:

- You must file a Form I-918 Supplement A, either at the same time as your application or at a later time
- Include the required evidence establishing the relationship between you and the qualifying family member
- Include a valid government photo ID of the qualifying family member
- Submit the applicable USCIS filing fee(s)